Charting the bumpy road of coparenthood: Understanding the challenges of family life.

James P. McHale

SelectedWorks Author Profiles:
James P. McHale

Document Type
Book

Publication Date
2007

Date Issued
Contents: What is coparenting and why is it important? / with Regina Kuersten-Hogan -- Our study of coparenting from pregnancy through toddlerhood / with Jean Talbot, Allison Lauretti, and Christina Kazali -- Looking ahead: imaging family life during pregnancy / with Jean Talbot and Christina Kazali -- Early adjustment: the coparental alliance at 3 months / with Meagan Parmley, Amy Alberts, and Julia Berkman -- A year in the making: coparenting patterns at 12 months / with Inna Khazan -- Coparenting dynamics and toddler adjustment / with Wendy DeCourcey -- How things change when a sibling joins the picture / with Allison Lauretti and Melanie McConnell -- What we learned and what families ought to know -- Expanding beyond dyadic to family group formulations in mental health practice.

Comments
xvi, 346 p. ; 23 cm. For full access, check out the book through the USF St. Petersburg Library (HQ755.8.M446 2007) request it on interlibrary loan, or order it through a book dealer.

Language
en_US

Publisher
Zero to Three

Recommended Citation

Creative Commons License
This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-Noncommercial-No Derivative Works 4.0 License.