This issue begins with a McCall’s magazine article on the pursuit of higher education. Agricultural articles pertain to the popularity of Canadian seed, the nutrition of honey, the profitability of the poultry industry, and successful livestock judging. Other articles address the popularity of race walking as an athletic endeavor, a short story penned by a student, and an update of the Student Christian Movement. Also included in this issue is the programme for the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair. Campus news reports on preparation for the third College Royal, athletic activities, and the Junior Promenade. The Alumni column provides an update of alumni activities. The Macdonald Institute column includes alumnae updates.
